

Kamrie Koi | Associate

Kamrie Koi is an associate in the firm’s litigation department. Her practice includes complex civil litigation, insurance defense, construction litigation, and commercial litigation.

Born and raised on Hawai‘i island, Kamrie graduated from Ka‘ū High School. She received her Bachelor of Arts degrees in Political Science and Administration of Justice from the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo. Kamrie graduated from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, William S. Richardson School of Law (“Richardson”) in 2021. During her time at Richardson, Kamrie received the CALI Excellence for the Future Awards for achieving the highest grade in four classes. Kamrie served as Editor-in-Chief for Richardson’s Asian-Pacific Law and Policy Journal, a Research Assistant for Professor Cory Lenz, and a Teaching Assistant for Legal Research classes and Legal Writing (Lawyering Fundamentals) classes.

Prior to joining the firm, Kamrie served as a Law Clerk for one year with the Honorable Henry T. Nakamoto of the Third Circuit Court of the State of Hawai‘i, and as a Law Clerk for one year with the Honorable James H. Ashford of the First Circuit Court of the State of Hawai‘i.

PRACTICES

Construction
Creditors’ Rights, Business
Employment Law
Foreclosure
Litigation and Alternate Dispute Resolution
Real Estate and Real Estate Development
White Collar Criminal Defense

BAR ADMISSIONS

Hawai‘i 2021

U.S District Court, District of Hawai‘i, 2021

EDUCATION

J.D. (2021) University of Hawai‘i,
William S. Richardson School of Law

B.A. in Political Science (2018),
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo

B.A. in Administration of Justice (2018),
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo

Certificate: Pre-Law (2018),
University of Hawai‘i at Hilo

info@m4law.com | P: 808.529.7300 | F: 808.524.8293

Five Waterfront Plaza, 4th Floor | 500 Ala Moana Boulevard | Honolulu, HI 96813